“I just want to add what I need to my cart, see the final price upfront, and know it’ll actually show up on time.”

Goals

- Shop without banner clutter
- Compare products easily
- See total cost upfront

Frustrations

- Cluttered, offer-heavy homepages
- Similar products hard to tell apart
- Fees and stock issues at checkout

Priya opens the app on her lunch break, scrolling past banners just to search. Comparing two brands of dal means opening each product separately. At checkout, an unexpected delivery fee appears, and an item she’d added is suddenly out of stock.
